COUNTY SENDS LAST OF JUNE QUOTA TO CAMP

481 Selectives Cheered by Friends as They Depart for Lee.

TWO FIGHT EARLY

Allegheny county sent her last contingent of the June movement of draftees for the national army last evening, when 481 soldier candidates, representing four city draft districts, one county district and Local Board No. 1 of McKeesport, boarded a special train in the Try street yards of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at 5 o'clock and departed for Camp Lee, Va.

Several thousand persons assembled in the railroad yards and gave the departing selectives a rousing farewell. Draftees representing the city boards marched to the entraining station, headed by bands.

At least two of the departing selectives have "real live fighting blood." Spectators watching the draftees parade at Market street and Liberty avenue were convinced of that fact when two of the selectives engaged in an argument. A quarrel followed, but the two were quickly parted by their comrades without serious results. Police Lieutenant John Callan responded to a hurried call to settle the dispute. Hundreds of persons were attracted and the parade was held up several minutes. No arrests were made.

DRAFTEES TO LEAVE.

Washington county draftees joined the Pittsburgh selectives at various points along the route. The Allegheny county contingent was made up of 21 men from Allegheny county local board No. 5, 181 men from city board No. 1, 134 men from city board No. 2, 87 men from city board No. 3, 47 men from city board No. 16, and one man from local board No. 2, McKeesport.

Following are the names of draftees from city and county zones who leave the Try street yards of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at 4 o'clock this afternoon:

Canadian Bags 72 Planes; Is Recalled

LONDON, June 28—(Via Ottawa).—With 72 German airplanes brought down to his credit, the greatest number of enemy machines destroyed by any entente airman so far, Major William A. Bishop has been transferred from the Canadian active force at the front to a position at the office of the British chief of the air staff.

The recall of the major was advised by Lord Weir, British air minister, at the special request of Sir Edward Kemp, Canadian overseas minister of militia, who represented that his unique war experience could be best utilized in connection with the organization of the Canadian air force.

Major Bishop's record of German airplanes brought down in aerial combat, if reckoned on the same basis as was that of the late Baron von Richthofen, the champion German airman, who counted a double-seated machine as two victories, would be well over the century mark.

Press Club Honors Retiring Traffic Head

Open house was kept by the Pittsburgh Press Club yesterday from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock in honor of Colonel Samuel Moody, retiring from the Pennsylvania Lines West as manager of passenger traffic after two score years' service. Colonel Moody is a member of the club and has been a lifelong friend of the newspaper men of Pittsburgh and the western territory through which his lines extended. Present at the informal reception and buffet luncheon were a number of the leading officials of the Pennsylvania system and many newspaper men who have known Colonel Moody for years.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation to the club by Colonel Moody of a mounted head of a stag elk, which for years adorned the colonel's office in Pennsylvania station, and which was shot in Canada by a friend of Colonel Moody.

Dr. Alexander Ends Meetings for Present

The series of patriotic meetings conducted by Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander in the First Presbyterian Church the last 11 weeks was brought to a tempory close with the meeting yesterday. The meetings will be discontinued until the first of October, and if the war continues, they will be resumed.

At yesterday's meeting Dr. Alexander spoke on "The Hand to the Plough." His address pointed out the meed of perseverence and sticking to the one truth of fighting with all the resources of the nation until final victory.

These Are the Principals

in the greatest comic feature in the country today,

'Bringing Up Father'

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Originator of the "Only Child" and other popular comic creations

There is Mr. Jiggs—"the old reprobate," as the "Missus" lovingly calls him; Maggie Jiggs, his "wif," and daughter Jiggs. Now, father's a dear old duffer—very accommodating with his pocketbook and all the other things that a loving parent is supposed to be—but, oh, oh, his manners! He says things and does things without regard for the niceties of social custom or requirement; he is continually pooh-poohing the social aspirations of the "girls," and taken all in all, is, to put it mildly, somewhat lacking in those formalities which obtain in the best circles of polite society.

Father, on the other hand, is perfectly satisfied with himself and his ways, and won't—no matter who likes it or not—become a dude or a mollycoddle. And this is where the fun comes in, as only George McManus can work it into pictures. Some of the situations are so downright funny, and the homely wit which overlays and underlays these comics so potent in its appeal, that hours afterwards when one believes he has forgotten the incidents the genial Mr. Jiggs will bob up before the mind's eye in a smile-provoking reminiscence.

Every McManus contribution is a gem—and you'll admit it, too, if you get the habit of looking for it every afternoon in
